INTENSIVE UNION APPRENTICESHIP PROGRAM (IUAP)
EXAMINATION PREPARATION AND TRAINING

EFFECTIVE DATE

This Bulletin is effective upon date of issue.

PURPOSE

This Bulletin announces the Intensive Union Apprenticeship Examination Preparation and Training program, provided by the Pacific Gateway Workforce Investment Network through its Center for Working Families and in collaboration with Creation World Safety.

INTENSIVE UNION APPRENTICESHIP PROGRAM

The Intensive Union Apprenticeship Examination and Preparation Training is an 80-hour training program that includes instruction in Construction Trades Math, Traffic Control, and preparation for the Union Building Trades examination and OSHA 10 certification. During the training, participants will have the opportunity to meet representatives from union trades and receive exposure to careers in the construction and trade industries.

Registration is now ongoing for the following classes:

Class 1 – October 1, 2007 (Closed)

Class 2 – October 15, 2007

Class 3 – October 29, 2007

Training hours for these classes are Monday through Friday, 7:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Applicants must have their high school diploma or GED and a valid driver's license.
